

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Intensive Training in the DBT Prolonged Exposure Protocol for PTSD
February 13-16, 2023 | Virtual Live Training

Scholarship Information

Purpose:

The goal of this scholarship is to contribute to reducing the profound disparity in access to mental health treatment among racial and ethnic minority, sexual and gender minority, low-income, and other underserved populations.

Eligibility Criteria:

This scholarship is intended for DBT clinicians who:

- (1) cannot afford to pay the full registration fee, and
- (2) work primarily with clients from NIH-designated health disparity populations.

Details:

The scholarship will provide a discount (typically 50%) on the early bird registration fee. There will be 10 scholarships available. Applications are due by December 7, 2022 and can be submitted by emailing this form to admin@dbtpe.org. Scholarship offers will be made by December 14, 2022.
